What is the best time of day for you to attend special programs at TAMU-CC? Select all that apply.

What other services do you wish were available for veterans at TAMU-CC?

“...a space for veterans to meet and study...free prints...to be treated equal or better than honors [students].”

“The veterans center is pretty amazing, but having more staff to assist in the transition phase would really help.”

[With childcare being open only until 6pm, how am I going to tackle night classes or should I just walk away from this university being only 12 hours away from graduating? Offer critical courses during regular business hours.]

“Counseling group for veterans with disabilities.”

“This is a university- we vets need to learn to transition on our own- just make the paper work easier.”

“General networking groups”

“Discounted parking fees!”

“...veterans should have priority over graduate students and athletes when it comes to registering and functions, as well as support.”

“I really liked the idea of the meet-a-veteran...a higher rate or similar events would have a positive impact...”

“The only reason I came to TAMUCC was because of its placement in G.I. Jobs magazine that said it was ‘veteran friendly’ and had a nursing school that gave credit for military experience...At the moment, I regret my decision coming to TAMUCC.”
